Hi Steve,

I am not planning on spreading unverified information. That is why I am asking you for information. You do know who else is involved because you must have worked with them.

Their publication does not list the entity responsible for the publication. That is why I am asking you for it. I am glad that you cleared up that you were not part of the funding. However, I am guessing you do know a bit about that aspect of it.

Thanks!

Hey, It's a community paper, and as far as I know a lot of people are involved. I don't know the answer to your request, regarding board and such. I helped out with some technical aspects such as look and media, as I believe having a resident's community paper is a good thing. I'm not in charge of content. I think the key for any publication is that all information is accurate, so I'd hit them with any corrections if you have them.

O!

Hi Steve,

Who is on the board of this paper? Is it you?

This is a publication and the board should not be a secret. I have heard that you are involved. Is that true?

Thanks,
